Prayer Partners
Lent 2015

“Christ Jesus...who is at the right hand of God, indeed is interceding for us.” Romans 8:34
How Does It Work?

Pray and Be Prayed For!

Fill out the form on the left and drop it in the offering plate, or turn it in to the office or to an usher. In a few weeks, we’ll mail you the form of the person you’ll be praying for this semester.

The person you’re praying for is a secret. Feel free to write them an encouraging note or a birthday card, but the greatest gift of all (for them AND you!) is praying for them during your regular prayer time.

We’ll gather in the spring to reveal prayer partners, share a meal and enjoy fellowship. We hope you find great peace, blessing, and communion with the Father through the discipline of prayer.

Confidentiality

Please keep your prayer partner as well as his/her requests confidential. All prayer requests and any information concerning the issues related to a prayer request are considered a sacred trust and are to be held in strict confidence.

“Prayer is like waking up from a nightmare to reality. We laugh at what we took so seriously inside the dream. We realize that all is truly well. Of course, prayer can have the opposite effect; it can puncture illusions and show us we are in more spiritual danger than we thought.” – Tim Keller
